

A call to a SIP conference

From the side of WCS, a call to a SIP conference is not different from a call between browsers via the SIP server or a call between a browser and a SIP device assuming the SIP server supports creating conferences. All participants of the conference make calls to the same SIP account on the server.