H264 encoding profiles management

While negotiating SDP between client and server, the server sends in answer SDP a supported H264 encoding profiles list. The maximum profile supported is set by the following parameter in flashphoner.properties file

```
profiles=640028
```

By default, High profile is used with level 3.1 (suitable for 1080p broadcasting).